

YOUR FACILITATORS

In addition to their extensive experience in leading workshops, AIM Seminars' facilitators have real-life experience in their subject areas. Among them are:

CLARYLYNN MERINO, Ph.D. ("Dr. Yellow Coyote")

Clarylynn has a doctorate in psychology and specializes as a Transpersonal Psychologist in Native American Art & Science.

DENISE ALLEY, BA

Denise has a degree in communication and uses her skills in motivation and creativity to teach with humor and practical examples.

ROGER LESLIE, BA

Roger's 11 years of experience as General Manager of Hon-Dah Resort and Conference Center provide him with a powerful background to motivate and teach leadership.

CHEYENNE AUTUMN, MS

Cheyenne has a master's degree in sociology. She is a wellness consultant with a background in both the corporate world and the Native American community.

ANN MCCOMMAS

DIRECTOR

Ann founded AIM Motivational Seminars in 1980. Prior to founding AIM, she managed four offices for Kelly Health Care.

AL MCCOMMAS, BS

DIRECTOR

Al has a degree in Electrical Engineering, plus 30 years as a manager in the utility business. He uses his background to teach customer service, team building and leadership.

